

THE GIVING APP

ANNUAL REPORT
FOR 2020

Founders Letter

Hey everyone, I've always been one to look for the good in people. So naturally, my goal for The Giving App was much more than just creating a successful app or nonprofit organization. It was about people helping people, and it was about starting a genuine movement. I hoped to inspire others to believe that WE could ACTUALLY change the world for the better, and that we didn't need to be a bunch of perfect people in order to be a part of it. Our movement would welcome anyone with a desire to give, and it would be built on small consistent acts of kindness from ordinary people from all walks of life. We would change the game for good-intentioned nonprofit organizations, and we'd bring hope and change to those who'd need it more than anything. It would take time, as all great things do. However, if we'd stay the course and keep our intentions pure, my hope was and still is that our mission would be blessed and that our giving community would become an undeniable force for good... one day. So now, I guess we're at the very beginning of the "let's find out" stage, but you already know where I've placed my bet. I'm all in on The Giving App, and what is The Giving App? It's a mobile giving platform that can become the future of philanthropy, but more than anything, The Giving App is PEOPLE. It's You, it's Me, it's all of Us. We are a community with enough hope to believe that we could still make a difference in this world, and I wouldn't bet against us. So whether you're already part of our community or if you're just hearing about us for the first time, I want you to know that I couldn't be more grateful that you're here! Our journey's only just begun, and I can't wait to see what we'll accomplish in the years to come.

Welcome to The Giving App! Love, James

2020 at a Glance

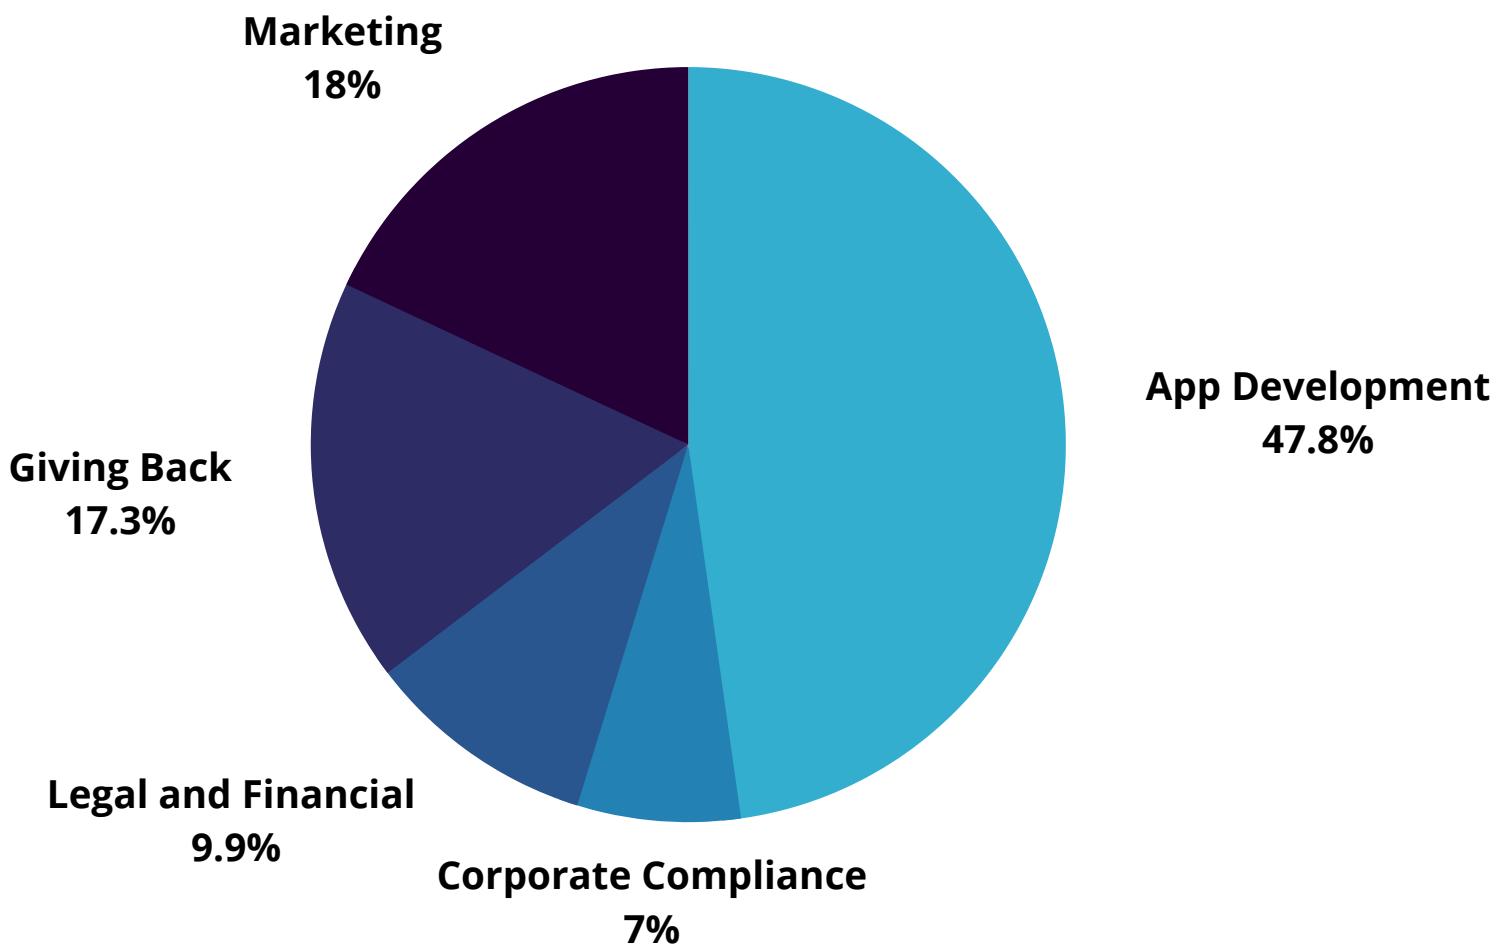

2020 has been a great year for our organization. Like many, the COVID-19 pandemic has greatly caused some strain in our organization, however, our team fostered the strength to still do many amazing things this year. We were able to start a COVID-19 relief fund. Moving closer to our app launch, we have onboarded over 20+ organizations in our Cohort of Charities. Last but not least have set up numerous community events to really ... just give back!

What is Our Budget?

Much of our large-scaled charitable impact will take place through our mobile app. So we've allocated the largest portion of our budget to its early development. Right now, building the app to a point where we can provide a positive giving experience for all donors and charities alike is our main priority. Once this has been accomplished, the financial requirements of app maintenance will be much less than those of app development. So at this point (which we foresee being near the end of Q1, 2021), we'll be able to reassess your budget and allocate more resources to initiatives like The Giving Truck, which is one of the many ways that we will be giving back to those in need right here in our own backyard of Los Angeles & LA county.
